

THE UNIVERSITY OF
MELBOURNE

Centre for Integrated Critical Care Research Higher Degree Student Seminar

Faculty of Medicine, Dentistry
and Health Sciences

4th August 2020

CICC student seminars provide an opportunity for graduate students to share their program of research with peers in an informal and supportive environment. The seminars are also designed as a forum for the CICC community to present current research and provide training in research methodology.

Program

1.00pm Welcome

Professor David Story, Deputy Co-director CICC, Chair of Anaesthesia

Professor Alex Boussioutas, Associate Dean, Graduate Research

1.10pm - 1.50pm Session one

Dr Emily See, PhD candidate, Austin Health
The Long Term Sequelae of Acute Kidney Injury

Dr Elyssia Bourke, PhD candidate, Murdoch Children's Research Institute
The Kids are not OK: Paediatric Acute Behavioural Disturbance in the ED

1.55pm - 2.45pm Session two

Associate Professor Jeffrey Presneill, Royal Melbourne Hospital
A Pragmatic Approach to Randomisation

Dr Tuong Phan, DMedSci candidate, St Vincent's Health
The Optimal Cardiac Output for the Optimal Recovery After Major Surgery

2.50pm - 3.50pm Session three

Dr Georgina Imberger, Western Health
Systematic Review

Professor Rinaldo Bellomo, CICC Director, Professor of Intensive Care
High-dose Vitamin C in Sepsis - What to do?

3:50pm - 4:00pm Closing remarks

Professor George Braitberg, Deputy Co-director CICC,
Professor of Emergency Medicine

Event Details

Date:

Tuesday 4th August 2020

Time:

1.00pm to 4.00pm

Venue:

Zoom (details will be provided via email)

Enquiries:

Anna Parker, Centre Manager
anna.parker@unimelb.edu.au
0425 792 309

Registration:

cicc-rhd.eventbrite.com.au

@CritCareUniMelb

medicine.unimelb.edu.au/critcare