

Department of Surgery
Melbourne Medical School

Faculty of Medicine, Dentistry and Health Sciences

Getting the edge: A professional development opportunity...

Maximise your chances for career advancement in Surgery with sessions on preparing for presentations, exams, interviews and creating a CV that cuts through to assist in obtaining a surgical training position.

Details

Date: Saturday 17th March 2018
Venue: Frederic Wood Jones Theatre
Level 3, East Wing, Medical Building: Grattan St, Parkville

Session times

10am–12.00* Oral Presentations

Convenors: Dr Karen Barclay (Northern Clinical School)
Associate Professor Justin Yeung (Western Health)

- Preparing for a scientific talk (incl slides and videos)
- Presenting a scientific talk, discussion and Q&A — what happens when things go wrong?!
- Developing poster presentations

12.15–2.00pm Career Development

Convenors: Associate Professor V. Muralidharan, supervisor of Surgical Education and Training SET Austin hub
Dr Krinal Mori (Northern Clinical School)

- How to become a Surgeon – Supervisor’s Perspective
- How to gain entry into the SET program – Trainee’s Perspective
- How to prepare and perform at the SET interviews
- How to prepare for the Generic Surgical Science Examination – Part 1 Exam
- Discussion –Q & A

*A light lunch will be provided for participants

Registration

Numbers are limited.
Register now for this free event:

▶ www.trybooking.com/book/event?eid=344402

Please indicate which session you wish to book (morning/afternoon or both), and if you require lunch (indicate dietary preferences e.g vegetarian).

Further information:

Denise Dwyer
Manager Department of Surgery

☎ 0466 533 453

✉ denise.dwyer@unimelb.edu.au

🖥 To register, visit www.trybooking.com/book/event?eid=344402

CRICOS Provider Code: 00116K