

2020 Victorian Showcase of Research in Health Professions Education

4.00-4.05 Professor Clare Delany

Welcome and acknowledgement of country

4.05-4.25 Professor Clare Delany

Start from a higher place: promoting learning and understanding in health professions education

Research Presentations

4.25-4.40 Sally Craig

Nurse education needs' assessment for the care of patients with temporary epicardial pacemakers

4.40-4.55 Christian Karcher

Staff and healthcare consumer perception of routine audio-video surveillance in the intensive care unit - barriers, solutions, opportunities

4.55-5.10 Leonie Griffiths

Evaluation of the Patient-Partner program

Research Presentations

5.15-5.30 EnYe Ong

A scoping review of geriatric educational interventions for non-geriatric doctors in training

5.30-5.45 Andrea Verde

An Allied Health transition-to-professional program design: experiences and perspectives of allied health supervisors and graduate staff

5.45-6.00 Caroline Koedyk

Do final year dental students value their rural clinical placement?

Works in Progress

6.00-6.10 Elizabeth Wearne

Female General Practitioners and the supervisor role: A narrative inquiry in progress

6.10-6.20 Trisha Soosay Raj

The impact of a ward round teaching tool on learner-centred teaching

6.20-6.30 Lauren Sanders

Simulation training for acute stroke management

6.30-6.40 Brett Vaughan

Closing remarks