

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE

Department of Medical Education

Having Impact on Health Communication

CRICOS: 00116K

EACH Australia Professional Development and Networking opportunity

Would you like to have greater impact on the quality of health communication, in your organisation, in teaching and in research?

As a member of EACH or University of Melbourne staff, you are invited to attend an EACH Australia Symposium, Having Impact on Health Communication. The symposium will be held at the University of Melbourne, directly after the Ottawa Transforming Healthcare through Excellence in Assessment and Evaluation.

Speakers include:

Prof Marcy Rosenbaum, The University of Iowa, U.S.A. Past EACH President
Prof Claudia Kiessling, University Witten/Herdecke, Germany (TBC)
Assoc. Prof Andy Ward, University of Leicester, U.K.

Program at a glance

- Keynote and panel discussion Making a difference in health communication: international perspectives.
- Workshop on supervising and facilitating health communication research
- Workshop on embedding compassion into healthcare and health professions education

When: 10am-3pm,
29 February 2024

Where: University of Melbourne, Parkville,
venue TBC

Register your interest
using this link.

Convenors:
A/Prof Conor Gilligan (European Association of Communication in Healthcare),
Prof Robyn Woodward-Kron,
(University of Melbourne)

