

Research roundtables

March 2019

Department of
Medical Education
Melbourne Medical School

The Department of Medical Education holds weekly research roundtables presented by both our own staff and visitors to the Department.

7 March

Educational impact of the long case in the MD

Dr Corinne Tey (EXCITE graduate, DME, University of Melbourne/ St Vincent's Hospital)

14 March

Casting theory a useful role in research writing

Dr James Brown (Director, Education Quality Improvement, Eastern Victoria GP Training)

21 March

Method used to engage students and provide feedback in Optometry

Anthea Cochrane (Department of Optometry and Vision Sciences, University of Melbourne)

28 March

What to do with ward rounds: Enhancing education in a complex environment

Dr Amy Gray (Royal Children's Hospital/ Department of Paediatrics, University of Melbourne)

Time

1-2pm Thursdays

Location

DME Library
Room N714, Level 7
Medical Building
Parkville Campus